About the Program

Sponsored by Dominion Energy

Southeastern Wildlife Exposition invites all Tri-County students, grades 1st through 12th to participate in the Kids for Conservation arts competition. KFC has been a great source of pride for SEWE for over twenty years and we are pleased to continue this excellent program in the Lowcountry.

SEWE is working diligently to promote Kids for Conservation in the Tri-County area and engage all students in the importance of conservation. It is our hope that students who invest in conservation efforts as youth will continue to protect our wildlife and environment as adults.

Grades 1st – 5th are invited to submit drawings and paintings; Grades 6th – 8th are invited to submit original photography and poetry; Grades 9th – 12th are invited to submit custom designed birdhouses using recycled materials.

All entries must be original work and wildlife inspired. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners will be chosen from each division.

KFC submissions will be on display for the month of February in the Main Branch of Charleston County Library. The entries will be posted to an online gallery on www.sewe.com.

2023 KIDS FOR CONSERVATION

Poster Competition Invitation

Dear Elementary Administrators and Teachers,

Southeastern Wildlife Exposition is excited to invite all Tri-County students to join us in celebrating the 41st annual Exposition February 17– 19, 2023. Kids for Conservation (KFC) has been a great source of pride for SEWE over the past twenty years and we are pleased to continue this excellent program in the Lowcountry. SEWE is working diligently to promote KFC in the Tri-County area and engage all students in the importance of conservation. It is our hope that students who invest in conservation efforts as youth will continue to protect our wildlife and environment as adults. We ask that you please encourage your students to participate in this wonderful program by submitting artwork.

The poster competition is open to students in grades 1 – 5 and each school may submit up to 8 posters. In addition to attaching a copy of the entry form to the back of each entry, the participating teachers must email an excel spreadsheet with the requested information to hshannon@sewe.com. (Please see example template.)

Posters are due Monday, November 28, 2022 and should be hand delivered to the SEWE office, 211 Meeting Street, 2nd Floor, Charleston, SC 29401 or mailed to PO Box 20635, Charleston, SC 29413. (Do not mail posters to physical address!) Winners will be announced the week of December 5th and prizes will be mailed to teachers mid-December.

Posters will be on display for the month of February in the Main Branch of Charleston County Library, located at 68 Calhoun Street. The posters will join other KFC entries (poetry, photography, and birdhouses); all will be on display during the month of February. Posters will be picked up from the library by the SEWE staff and mailed to the school (to the teacher's attention) in early March.

Please review the enclosed form and guidelines and feel free to contact me with any questions at 843.723.1748 or hshannon@sewe.com.

Kind Regards,

Hannah Shannon
